

Beta Club Morning Homework Help Center

Who: Students needing help with homework, students who need help studying for a quiz or test, or students who need to work on projects may drop in for assistance.

What: Beta Club students will provide guided assistance to fellow classmates needing help with their studies. Students will model successful study tips, show to take notes, and help students review for assessments.

When: Tuesday - Thursday @ 7:05 - 7:35 As long as there is room (capacity 24), students will be admitted to the Homework Help area before going to their hall. Do not send students from the hall.

Where: ISS Room (207)